

NEW CITY COUNCIL INDUCTED INTO OF- FICE MONDAY NIGHT

Mayor Russell Appoints Mayor-Elect's
Committee—Telephone Company
Gives Notice of Rental Increase.

The old city council wound up its business at Monday night's session and adjourned finally and forever. Nothing but routine business was transacted and they had finished in a very short time.

When Mayor Russell called the new city council to the half-circle, Mayor-elect Samuel appeared in the Council Chamber and he was invited by the Mayor to occupy a seat with him behind the presiding officer's desk. In all affairs connected with the new council Mayor Russell consulted the committees carrying out the newly elected official's wishes.

As the first act upon the assembling of the new council, Mayor Russell appointed Mayor-elect Samuel's committees as follows:

Following the appointment of the new committees the City Clerk read a communication from the Maysville Telephone Company giving council official notice that they proposed to increase the telephone rental rates immediately and asking that a committee of councilmen be named to check up on the telephone company's books to see that they have the requisite number of subscribers to entitle them to an increase in rates. On this committee Councilmen J. A. Dodson, M. R. Hirschfeld and J. D. Keith were named.

Council then took up a series of twenty ordinances. They were as follows: (1) Abolishing office of Marshal; (2) Abolishing office of Night Sergeant; (3) Abolishing office of Auditor; (4) Abolishing office of Prison Guard; (5) Adopting a set of rules for the government of council and fixing the first and third Thursday in each month as the regular meeting times; (6) Determining who shall be eligible for the Alma House; (7) Deducting the Alma House and Post House property to that specific use; (8) Providing for the election of Assessor and fixing his salary at $250; (9) Requiring certain bonds of all officers; (10) Providing for the election of a City Attorney for a term of two years and fixing his salary at $900 per year; (11) Providing for the election of a City Physician, defining his duties and fixing his compensation at $200 and fees; (12) Providing for the election of City Clerk and fixing his

LEAF GROWERS COMING INTO THE POOL RAPIDLY

Hundreds of Delinquents Are Signing
Pooling Contracts, Says Campaign
Manager in Statement Issued.

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 6. — Burley tobacco growers to the number of several hundred are with the Burley Tobacco Growers' Cooperative Association believed to have signed contracts yesterday in many counties of Kentucky, Ohio, and Indiana, and in West Virginia, in which state Clifton Rhodes is conducting a campaign for signatures to the association, judging from reports coming to Organization Manager Joseph Pasonneau from the field.

Mr. Pasonneau said last night that the reports indicated that growers who had remained outside until the association had proven a success in point of numbers and tobacco signed appeared to be eager to get into the organization now and that before the close of the week Saturday next at midnight he believed that 95 per cent. of the growers of the entire burley district would be in the organization.

The taking over of a warehouse at Richmond yesterday by friends of the association was extremely gratifying to Mr. Pasonneau. The majority of the directors of this warehouse were friendly to the association but an officer or two insisted upon opening it for burley sales after December 15. These men were given an offer for their stock and accepted it.

POSTERS ADVERTISE CLASS CONTEST.

The striking posters advertising the contest between the young men and young women classes of the First M. E. Church, South, have appeared in prominent positions along Second street. In the window of the Peoples Drug Store is one that is worthy of special comment. It is an excellent pencil study developed in tones of grey, representing the forging of another link in a chain, and would do credit to a professional illustrator. It is the work of Mr. Andrew Moody of this city.

"WAY DOWN EAST" ONE OF THE GREAT- EST OF PICTURES

Those Who Saw Great Griffith Picture at Washington Monday Say It Is a Most Remarkable Production
—Big Crowds Expected.

The great Griffith production of "Way Down East," was shown for the first time Monday at the Washington Opera House and a very good crowd saw it.

The picture is by far the greatest screen production ever shown in the city of Maysville and there should be great crowds at every showing. Those who fail to see the picture will miss what many very eminent critics say is the greatest accomplishment in moving pictures since the introduction of the art.

The ice scene in the picture is most wonderful and will stir the emotions of every one who sees it no matter how hardened. Many other wonderful scenes in the picture will grip the heart.

It has been remarked by many people who have seen the picture that the barn burning scene is the performance has all the suggestion of "real thing". And it is genuine, too, with a champion barn-dancer from New England to lead off the figures and to do a lot of stepping, and with a fiddler who is the best square dance fiddler in New Hampshire. That fiddling fellow is Charles F. Bishop of Hanover, New Hampshire, and he took his first trip to New York to get into the picture. At Mamaroneck he enjoyed every minute of his stay but he and the New Englanders with whom he arrived weren't at all keen about going into the big city. In fact they declined to go when they were invited.

Bishop was a merry fiddler, indeed. There wasn't one who could recite his melody and this is apparent in the vigor and enthusiasm of the dancers in the picture, most of whom are just actor folk without and New England ancestry. Bishop feels that he did a good job in coming down from Hanover to Mamaroneck, even though he was obliged to abandon for a time the building of a big "operation" in his town—six houses. Nero fiddled when Rome was burning. Bishop kept on playing tunes all the time his houses remained untouched.

CONGRESSMAN FORM BLOC ON RIVER APPROPRIATION

Amount Fixed By Budget for Rivers and Harbors Improvement Considerably Reduced in First Budget.

Washington, Dec. 5. — Formation of a "Rivers and Harbors Bloc" in the House was under way today after it became known that the estimates submitted to Congress under the new budget law called for only $15,000,000 for rivers and harbors work. Members of the new bloc announced their intention of fighting for an increase of this amount of $40,000,000.

The opposition aroused today to this item in the estimates of Gen. C. G. Dawes, Director of the Budget, is the first rift in the operation of the budget system, but it was not provoked by any piling down of estimates on the part of the Director General.

Proponents of river and harbor improvement called on General Dawes today just as soon as they had learned of his estimate for river and harbor work and demanded to know why he had requested only $15,000,000.

AUTOIST CLAIMS TO HAVE BEEN HELD UP

At thirty minutes past midnight Monday night Robert McMillan, of Dover, was brought before Police Sergeant Mackey and reported that only a few minutes before while driving his automobile out the Germantown road, he was held-up by three men at the horseshoe bend.

McMillan said the three men took him from his machine, searched him and found only a few cents. This they returned to him, ordered him to turn his machine about and drive back to Maysville. He complied with their request and while driving fast through the streets was stopped by policemen. Officers are unable to learn any other particulars of the reported hold-up.

FARM BUREAU WILL BE CONTINUED IS DIRECTORS' PLAN

Directors of Mason County Farm Bureau Plan for Continuation of the Organization and the Procuring
Of a County Agent.

Most interesting was the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Mason County Farm Bureau held at the office of the organization on Monday for the purpose of considering the continuation of the organization through the next year.

Members of the board were very much pleased with the work of the bureau through the past year and were of the unanimous opinion that the organization has more than paid for itself in its assistance to its members and the farmers in general in Mason county.

The matter of continuing the organization was discussed at length and the board finally came to the conclusion that it would be a great loss to the farmers of the county to permit it to die. President Maurice Kirk appointed a committee to confer with the State Experiment Station and the head of the State Federation of Farmers to ask their help and co-operation in making the bureau a success for another year. This committee will also confer with the Chief of Farm Agents at Lexington in regard to procuring a new County Agent for Mason county for next year.

Miss Phoebe Huron resigned as the Treasurer of the Bureau and Mr. James M. Riley, who as Secretary of the Bureau, has given much time to its active work, was unanimously chosen as her successor.

After obtaining needed information, the Bureau will make a new canvass for membership during the first of the year with a definite program outlined for accomplishment during the coming year.

It is not likely that the interest in the clinic will subside. Last Saturday, two patients came from Fleming county and one from Bracken for examination and treatment.
Seventy-five per cent. of the proceeds of the Seal Sale go to equip and maintain this clinic. If you want the spread of trachoma arrested and eventually eradicated in the county buy liberally of these seals.

CHILDREN AND CRIME.

Judge Lindsey while in Cincinnati took occasion to say that juvenile delinquency was on the increase in this country. His judgment seems to be confirmed by reports of investigations made by officials of the Government and other agencies.

The disclosures in these reports are disturbing. It is said that in a half dozen large cities more than one hundred boys and girls now are under indictment for major felonies, and that an additional score are being held for murder.

Judge Lindsey indicts the automobile as the chief factor in the temptation zone of youth. Unquestionably the automobile has something to do with the unfortunate situation. But it is not to the tangible, objective agencies of temptation that we should look in this grave matter. The causes for juvenile waywardness and crime lie deeper than that. Society itself is not blameless here, but the chief blame must rest upon the home itself. Corrective laws are essential to the peace and good order of a free community, but laws never of themselves can destroy the impulses and emotions which lead men and women, boys and girls to the commission of crime, or prevent them from engaging in immoralities subversive of the rules of right living.

The sociologist, the welfare worker, civic organizations, clubs, lodges, the church, all these are helpless unless the home influence dominates for good the life of the child. Here it is that the basic principles of all morality must be imparted, nourished, cultured, guarded, especially through the formative years of mental development. Here the seeds of faith, elasticity, honor, mental cleanliness and truth must be implanted. The responsibility of the parent is a fearful responsibility.

The picture indicated by Judge Lindsey and the Federal officers is an appalling one. It shows us Juvenile Courts in the cities crowded with reformatories, detention homes and houses of refuge filled in all sections of the country. It is said that this situation has its counterpart in England, Germany, France and other countries. Gladly one says, it is all because of the recent war. But is it? We think not. The trouble lies in the failure of society and parents to realize the full gravity of responsibility to the child.

HOME PHILOSOPHY FOR 1921

Yes, the auto is a great convenience and also a great pleasure, but—but—we can't forget our good old friend, THE HORSE. As W. S. Ogilvie reminds us in "Field," he was of the days that were steadfast, staunch and slow; when we took time to think deeply and when our brains made us firm in faith and hearty to principle and duty. Says Ogilvie:

Along the road the ceaseless motors I find a sorrow in his stubborn thrust, Striking discordant warning and With grief unguessed I stand and watch him go harsh blame. Then suddenly proud stepping through the dust,
Comes what I'll call for want of better name

BIG HIGHWAY PROGRAM

With the signature by President Harding of the bill releasing about $75,000,000 for the construction of roads, many states will embark on extensive highway programs. They have been waiting for the expected Federal aid before taking up road-building projects, and now are free to go ahead. Thousands of men will be given employment in the new work.

BILLIONS FOR BUILDING.

It is estimated by a leading New York authority that a building program amounting to $2,000,000 has been started in the United States since the first of the year. Much of it was due to the result of the elections and the returned confidence that a Republican administration inspired.

CORN IS KING
CENSUS REPORT
PLAINLY SHOWS

Cotton Knocked From Throne to Third Place in Valuation
Of American Crops.

Washington, D. C. — The Department of Commerce, through the Bureau of the Census, announces the following data from the 1920 census of agriculture for the United States.

The 20 leading crops of the United States in 1919, arranged in order of value were corn, hay and forage, cotton, wheat, oats, potatoes, tobacco, apples, barley, sweet potatoes, rye, rough rice, grapes, peaches, kafir, and milo, oranges, sugar beets, peanuts, dry edible beans, and sugar cane. The total value of these 20 crops was $13,754,290,926 which represents more than nine-tenths of the total value of crops shown by the fourteenth census.

Corn heads the list, with a value of $3,507,797,102, or almost $1,000,000 more than hay and forage, which stands second on the list with a value of $2,523,050,224. Cotton ranked third with a value (including cottonseed) of $2,355,169,365, and wheat ranked fourth, with a value of $2,074,078,801. These four crops combined represented a value amounting to $10,460,095,492, or 76.9 per cent of the total value of all crops harvested in 1919.

The next four crops in order were oats, with a value of $855,255,468; potatoes (white), with a value of $639,440,521; tobacco, with a value of $444,047,481; and apples, the leading fruit crop, with a value of $241,573,557.

LACK OF PLANT FOOD
REDUCES CROP YIELDS

Lack of available plant food, which is the greatest single factor responsible for the low average crop yields of Kentucky farms, can be remedied by the use of farm manure and a commercial phosphate coupled with the growing of legumes and the application of green manuring, according to suggestions by crops specialists at the College of Agriculture. Supplying the necessary plant food should increase the state's present average corn yield of 26 bushels and acre to 40 or 45 bushels an acre and the average wheat yield from 13 bushels an acre to 20 or more bushels, they say.

"Either nitrogen or phosphorus, or both, are the limiting factors in determining yields on practically every farm in Kentucky," R. E. Stephenson, a member of the college agronomy department said. "Phosphorus usually must be bought in the form of acid phosphate, basic slag or rock phosphate but it is seldom profitable to purchase nitrogen for use on general field crops because of its cost. As long as the nitrogen deficiency is not made good, however, the use of phosphate cannot be as profitable as it otherwise should be. In other words, phosphorus will not give its best results until the nitrogen is provided with it."

"Since manure is relatively rich in nitrogen, it is an excellent form of fertilizer to use with phosphate which every farmer can purchase on an economical basis. Manure and phosphate, when used together on soils needing both phosphorus and nitrogen, will give greater returns than when either is used alone."

"Aside from its fertility value, manure has other qualities which give it an important place in improving soils. Chief among these is its ability to improve the physical qualities of soils. This can be noticed in the amount of tillage necessary to put a field in condition for planting before and after it has been well manured. The organic matter which it supplies loosens the tight soil and gives it the desired granular structure. In addition to this manure stimulates the activity of soil bacteria and aids them in making plant food available."

CHRISTMAS GIFTS.

There's everything in the way a Christmas gift is wrapped up, whether it's a pair of socks, or a diamond necklace. Nothin' so reflects the spirit of the giver as the way a gift is wrapped.

Some folks mail a shavva mug in a cigar box and wrap it up in meat paper and tie it with a white string, and plaster it with one-cent stamps, and lay it on the first mail box they come to, rain or shine.

Sometimes they mail hickory nuts in a stained sock and tie on a yeller shippin' tag 't it.

Sometimes folks mail a Christmas handkerchief rolled up in a newspaper 't save trouble an' extra postage.

If a friend is worth rememberin' then worth a little tissue paper an' ribbon on 'stickers, even if the present is only same home-made fudge, or a granite foot tub.

Miss Fawn Lippincott is the authoress of the 'follerin' Christmas wrappin' hints:

Never mail maple sugar in a toilet paper box. Never use rope or butcher twine in wrappin' up needle work.

Cod fish boxes should never be used for Christmas boxes—not even for felt boots.

Never mail a fruit cake an' box 't other.

Never mail persimmons in a cold cream jar. Don't mail 'em at all if possible.

Allus present an umbrella personally instead o' mailin' it.

In fixin' up a Christmas box for relatives in Iowa, first select a stout pine eatup box an' line with a Sunday newspaper.

Then wrap th' celluloid hand mirror, photograph, calendar, ear puff receiver, an' radiator quilt in separate packages. Decorate with cheap, inexpensive, but effective, polka-dot stickers.

Address each package 't Aunt Emily, Cousin' Min, or Alex, as the case may be. Lay radiator quilt on bottom o' box; imbed mirror in quilt; lay calendar on mirror, an' photograph on calendar.

A few coconuts may be added as a filler in the absence of a good durable black cake cut in wedges.

Then lay th' ear puff received an' several ole magazines on top fer an' overlay.

In natilla th' lid on be careful not 't hit a coconut.

Address box with oil crayon instead of a hard lead pencil, then take box 't express office about th' 10th o' December, an' prepay charges jest as a guarantee o' good faith.

THINGS TO LEARN.

Learn to laugh; a good laugh is better than medicine.

Learn how to tell a story; a good story, well told, is as welcome as a sunbeam in a sick-room.

Learn to keep your own troubles to yourself; the world is too busy to care for your ills and sorrows.

Learn to hide your aches and pains under pleasant smiles; no one cares to hear whether you have headaches, earaches, or rheumatism.

Learn to meet your friends with a smile; a good-humored man or woman is always welcome, but the dyspeptic is not wanted anywhere.

Above all, give pleasure; lose no chance of giving pleasure.

You will pass through this world but once.

Any good thing, therefore, that you can do, or any kindness that you can show to any human being, you had better do it now; do not defer or neglect it.

For you will not pass this way again

New York Letter

by Lucy Jeanne Price

New York — One of the quaintest shops in town is located in Fifteenth street, in a row of buildings which, even in the palmiest days did not boast of a single brownstone front. The front of the shop is glass, with small-paned windows and has vines trained about the sills. All day long and through the night a steady light burns from an electric candle in the back of the shop. The candle is set before a high and elaborate shrine, the image of which dominates the shop, and is surrounded by many lesser images, as if in honor of the central figure. Bunches of flowers are clustered on the ceiling. In anticipation of Christmas, the window display gives a little tableau of the first Christmas Eve, such as one sees in the crib decorations in the churches. Countless little plaster models provide the picture for the commercial representation of this significant event.

—NY—

The day is past when our toppers can "sno something in the bottle for the morning." It now amounts to saving the last cigarette to begin the day right. A glance around the subway stations in the early morning, just after they have been cleaned from the night before, shows an endless litter of cigarette packs, boxes and stubs. Just as they emerge from the train the men take their last cigarette and throw the container away. This may also account for the location of so many cigar stores just at the subway entrances.

—NY—

And still the price of real estate soars! In spite of dull times, unemployment and retrenchment, the value of Manhattan Island continues to increase. This was forcibly brought out last week when the Title Guarantee and Trust Company lent a round $1,000,000 to E. L. Barnett, Inc., financial agents for the Hotel Commonwealth, which pledged less than half its site for the loan. The site, which covers the entire block between Fifty-fifth and Fifty-sixth streets and Broadway and Seventh avenue, is valued at more than $8,000,000 on the flat basis of $125 per square foot. No wonder rents are so high! With the zoning regulations which limit the height to which a building may rise and the extraordinary value of the land, it is remarkable that office and home rents are no higher. This already famous hotel building built on the co-operative principle, will have its first half opened during June, 1923, and at that time it is safe to say that close to 75,000 persons will be part owners in it. These owners are interested in this project, since they may well anticipate large dividends even though but a small percentage of its owner-members are residents at any one time.

—NY—

One can forgive one's ancestors for the way they looked if the portrait is painted by Reynolds, Gainsborough or some of the rest. But a recent exposure frustrates even this satisfaction by the estimate of one of our best art dealers in New York that nine-tenths of the portraits gracing our ancestral halls are the work of Bill Smith and John Jones. Even the sacred high ceilinged parlors of the old Southern mansions are violated by these fake pictures, according to this authority. New England, he says, is cluttered with them, nor some of our best families here are hurrying down to the experts to have their treasures examined. Before the days of photography, portrait painters were employed by persons of comparatively small resources and in the aging process an oil portrait that was probably done for $5.00, meals and lodging included, is now traced to one of the masters. Some of the portraits would speak for the price paid!

—NY—

The horses and their show are no more gone than the motor people upon their annual automobile salon. The exhibition is now on at the Commodore Hotel, and all the high grade cars of this country and Europe are represented. It is discouraging to go about mildly interested in a small service car and see the elaborate devices and gorgeous tonneaus now employed in the most everyday fashion by motor purchasers. The greatest care has not only been given to the construction, but the finish of both the American and foreign motor automobiles. Beautiful fabrics, cloth and leather upholstery materials, chosen with the same care which one would take in a wall decoration, are utilized in the new designs. Cars are now done in the Period styles, and some of them are so exquisite that they give the appearance of a boudoir rather than a transportation vehicle.

—NY—

It is announced here that Sem Henell, the noted Italian author whose play "The Jost" which, with the Harcourt brothers, was one of the outstanding successes of the state last year, is to write scenarios. The eighth art would thus continue to forge ahead. It now has Rudyard Kipling, Sir Gilbert Parker, Arthur Henry Jones, Edward Knoblock and scores of others giving their time to the cinema rather than to straight dramatic writing. Of all these, Henell's fame is international. His career is as picturesque as his famous compatriots d'Annunzio. His dramas have been produced not only in Italian and English, but in the French, Spanish, German and Scandinavian languages. We have heard one of his plays, "L'Amour des Trois Rois" in operatic composition at the metropolitan. During the war he was a great soldier in the Italian campaigns, figuring conspicuously in the Pieve engagement and receiving no end of decorations. He is convinced that moving pictures offer the greatest field for his dramatic technique, and like the rest, announces his purpose "to produce better pictures."

LUCY JEANNE PRICE.

CURIOUS CURES USED IN CHINA.

In China the art of healing is still based on faith and superstition.

To the Chinaman evil spirits play a great part in all illnesses. The earth is supposed to be full of evil spirits ready to pounce upon the unwary whenever they see a opportunity.

Should a child be ill, it is believed that the soul has left the body. It must be called back before the child can recover. Calling for the return of the soul is a custom prevalent in all parts of China.

It is also the custom to pray for holy medicine. A patient must pay a visit to the temple and take from the altar a tube containing numbered sticks. He passes the tube over the incense several times until one stick falls out. This is picked up and the number on it is read. A corresponding slip containing a prescription is then handed to him.

As a treatment for apoplexy, serpent's liver is surely unique, but this is prescribed by the Chinese doctors. Pigs' feet and deer's tendons are prescribed for weak legs, and fishes' heads for headache and giddiness.

Human flesh is supposed to be efficacious in the case of certain illnesses, and young people will have pieces of flesh removed to make medicine for a sick father!

YOU'RE LOPSIDED!

DID YOU KNOW IT!

There is scarcely a man or woman who has not one shoulder a little lower than the other. The low shoulder is generally the right, for the droop is caused by using one hand and arm more than the other. Usually the muscles of the right side of the body are better developed than those of the left; but, curiously enough, the left foot is often larger than the right.

As a rule, the right eye is better than the left, while if we wish to catch an indistinct sound, it is always the right ear that we turn toward it.

This neglect of the left side has made it less robust than the right. Diseases which affect the ears, eyes, nose, or legs occur far more frequently on the weak left side than on the more developed right.

Only about 400 genuine "Strad" violins are said now to exist.

FARM AND HOME NEWS FROM OVER KENTUCKY.

What is expected to be one of the best Junior agricultural tent clubs in Kentucky is being developed in Marion county by County Agent H. J. Childress and Assistant County Agent L. C. Brewer. Members of the club will develop a purchased half of one of the best breeds as their start in raising cattle.

Dairymaking is receiving increased attention from Crittenden county, a report from County Agent J. R. Spencer states. Several farmers in the county are planning to purchase purchased dairy animals while inquiries on dairy subjects from others indicate that this form of farm business may prove popular with farmers of the county in the future.

Work in the eradication of tuberculosis in Union county dairy cattle is progressing rapidly, a report from County Agent A. M. Allen shows. Forty farmers in the county recently were visited in the interests of the work after which 178 animals were tested for symptoms of the disease.

Interested large county concerns and individuals are cooperating with County Agent J. W. Jones in a movement for more and better dairy cattle in the dairy sections of the county, according to a report.

At least 20 poultry raisers in Crittenden county are expected to conduct demonstrations during the coming year in cooperation with County Agent John R. Spencer and the College of Agriculture extension division. The demonstrations will be designed to show the best methods of housing, feeding and managing farm birds and the increased profits which result from such a system.

To more Carroll county farmers have been enrolled in the campaign for improved livestock, according to a report of County Agent G. C. Routt. They have agreed to use nothing but numbered stores in all their breeding work.

Whether the substitutes for dancing suggested by Dr. C. M. McCrea for Methodist girls will prove acceptable to their beaux remains to be seen. These substitutes are showing photographs in the family album and telling fortune by tea leaves.

IS THIS YOUR EXPERIENCE?

Many Maysville People Are Afflicted With Annoying Kidney Ills.

Are you bothered with too frequent action of the kidneys? Are the secretions highly colored—do they contain sediment—burn and scald in voiding? These are all signs of kidney sickness and should not be neglected. Maysville people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches and your kidneys are weak you will find no better recommended remedy.

George H. King proprietor grocery store, 615 East Second street, Maysville says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for several years and have been greatly benefited by them. At times my kidneys get out of order and the secretions pass irregularly. I suffered with a severe aching through the small of my back. Whenever I have one of these attacks I use a box or so of Doan's Kidney Pills and they never fail to cure the complaint in a short time." (Statement given November 15, 1916.)

PERMANENT BENEFIT. On November 22, 1920, Mr. King added: "The cure I spoke about in my former statement has proven absolutely permanent. I haven't had the slightest sign of kidney trouble since giving my testimony in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills in 1916." Price 60 cents at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. King had. Foster-Milburn Co., Office, Buffalo, N. Y.

MADE HUTT IS HEAVILY FINED.

Chicago, Dec. 6. — The "bad news" for Babe Ruth, world's champion home-run hitter with the New York Yankees, broke Monday.

Ruth was fined his world's series prize, amounting to $3,362.26 and suspended until May 29 of the 1922 season by Judge Landis, Commissioner of baseball, for participating in those exhibition games following the close of the world's series games between the Giants and Yankees.

HUNTER FINED $75 FOR KILLING KENTUCKY DEER

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 5. — The first arrest in many years for killing a deer in Kentucky was made in Powell county recently when Ambrose Ballard was fined $75. The deer is supposed to have wandered there after being released from the Bell county preserve.

It had to go more than fifty miles across the divide between the headwaters of the Cumberland and the Kentucky Rivers to get there. One was reported in Garrard on the edge of the Bluegrass.

November was the busiest month of the year for wardens, who made 107 arrests and obtained 102 convictions, the record for the Game and Fish Department.

WILLIAMS CASE DELAYED.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 6. — The $50,000 alienation suit of R. Dick Williams, husband, against Sheriff Ross, was postponed until March 13 when the case was called today.

The continuance of the case caused no surprise as it had been intimated that a continuance would be sought by the plaintiff.

The sheriff has sought a trial of the case at each calling.

FRED TONEY MAY GO.

Fred Toney may not be in a New York Giant uniform next spring, it is reported. John McGraw didn't like the way the Yanks bumped Fred last October and unless the big fellow shows something new next spring he will likely get the gate.

Despite his great work as a relief runner in the past world's series, Jess Barnes is said to be due for a ticket reading "from New York." Fans say Toney got the bad breaks in the luck and happened to hit two days he was not right. On the contrary some aver Barnes had the breaks coming his way.

Stewart is survived by his wife and one daughter 6 years old, who were visiting in Asheville, N. C., at the time of his death. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

Tobacco FARMERS

Our Prices Averred $28.70

Does It Pay to Join the Pool?

The Farmers Tobacco Warehouse of Huntington, W. Va., opened December 1st with over 100,000 pounds of tobacco on the floor for sale. Because of blocked sale, only 54,280 pounds were sold, but THIS BROUGHT AN AVERAGE OF $28.70 PER HUNDRED POUNDS.

HERE ARE SOME OF THE HIGH-PRICED CROPS OF THE DAY

Oliver Spurlock, Beach Fork, Lavelette, W. Va. $63.75 per hundred
M. McCoy, Piney, W. Va., $45.00 per hundred
E. Collins, Crown City, O., $41.20 per hundred Lawrence Lockhart, Lavalette, W. Va., $40.85 per hundred Arch Smith, Leon and Webbville, Ky., $39.65 per hundred

(FOR THEIR ENTIRE CROPS)

No tricks were resorted to in order to boost the average. The tobacco was sold as it ran. Had it not been for several thousand pounds of old, low, common grades, the price would have run up to $31.52 per hundred, general average. AND THERE WAS NOT ONE REJECTION DURING THE DAY.

Practically factory buyers were represented, and the bidding was spirited.

I advertised in October and November that my warehouse would open on December 1, that buyers were assured me and that prices would be satisfactory. I am letting the figures speak for themselves.

I have fought the pool from THE START, and my warehouse was the only one that did. I did not carry water on both shoulders, but openly announced my stand. Had it not been for my stand, this market would have been closed as they are in Kentucky.

The farmers stood by me in my opening sale. Over 85 wagons of the 100 coming to this market on the first day entered my warehouse. The shippers also stood by me in the fight to keep this market open. There was not one dissatisfied farmer on my floor.

These statements are absolutely facts, and are not stretched for advertising purposes.

Ship or bring your tobacco to my warehouse, and help me fight the pool. I positively will not sell out to the pool interests as long as the farmers stand by me.
